

COMPLAINT RECEIVED

The Enforcement Division of the Fair Political Practices Commission received the enclosed complaint, COM-08032020-01283, on 8/7/2020 4:26:00 PM. The information filed in the complaint is below and any attachments filed will be included.

The Complaint was submitted anonymously via the Enforcement Division's electronic complaint system.

The Complaint was formally filed against:

Gregory Lin Tanaka
Greg Tanaka for Palo Alto City Council 2016

The Violations alleged are:

Statement of Intention to be a Candidate (85200)

Failure to file new Form 501 Statement of Intention to be a Candidate

A Candidate for local office must file FPPC Form 501, Candidate Statement of Intention, for each election, including reelection to the same office. The form must be filed before a candidate solicits, receives contributions and loans, or makes expenditures on behalf of their candidacy. Filing is the starting whistle allowing a candidate to begin these activities.

Greg Lin Tanaka was elected to the Palo Alto City Council in November 2016. He has announced as an incumbent candidate for the same office in the November 3, 2020 election.

On New Years Eve 2019, there was a sudden influx of $13,000 from five donors into Tanaka's 2016 City Council candidate campaign account that he had kept open. Mr. Tanaka reported these contributions on his July 1-Dec. 31, 2019 Form 460, which likely evaded notice by the public as it was in this off-election year. (Form 460 enclosed),

A $1,259.80 balance is noted before the New Years Donations, showing only $301 in expenses for the six-month term of the Report, and a mere $322 in expenses for the previous six months in that Report. Given modest office expenses and a sufficient balance to cover them into the foreseeable future, it seems clear these sudden News Year's Eve contributions are the ramp-up funding for Mr. Tanaka's 2020 City Council campaign.

In January 2020, he raised $12,550, including one donation for $10,000. Tanaka's fundraising continued over the next six months with contributions flowing to his 2016 campaign committee totaling $14,669. Added to the 2019 New Year's Eve contributions, he could now boast of a $26,350 fund in his old 2016 candidate account. (January 1-June 30, 2020 Form 260 enclosed)

Also seen on this Report, spending suddenly shot-up from approximately $50 a month in 2019, to $2,277 in just the first half of 2020. Included expenses reflect traditional campaign items such as voter data fees, Nation Builder campaign software, and canvassing costs.

As was stated above, filing is the starting whistle that allows Mr. Tanaka to solicit, receive contributions and make expenditures on behalf of his candidacy. Yet he delayed filing his required new Statement of Intention to be a Candidate 501 Form until July 14, 2020, six and a half months after receiving his initial 5 New Year's Eve 2019 contributions, totaling $13,000, then going on to reap 11 more contributions through June 2020, totaling $26,350.

Greg Lin Tanaka, incumbent candidate for Palo Alto City Council, has knowingly committed clear violations of law by both receiving illegal monetary contributions and making illegal expenditures from his 2016 campaign committee account months before filing a new 501 Form as legally required. (CA Gov. Code Sec. 85200, 84215, FPPC Manual, Ch.1.8)

Furthermore, this is not candidate Tanaka's first failure to comply with transparency rules regarding political campaign activities. Following his election in 2016, an FPPC investigation concluded that Councilmember Tanaka had committed three violations of Government Code Sections 84203 and 84211 – including failure to timely disclose large contributions and failure to properly disclose donor identities. Mr. Tanaka and his committee Greg Tanaka for City Council 2016 stipulated to the violations in September 2017.

In 2017 Mr. Tanaka offered the public a dual defense of his illegal behavior: 1) These were mere clerical errors and 2) I'm a rookie and didn't know any better (see enclosed Palo Alto Weekly article 9/1//17). Now, as an incumbent official whose recipient committee has been actively helmed by the same Treasurer for four years, those excuses don't fly.

Instead, the violations in this complaint demonstrate persistent attempts to shield the sources and amounts of his campaign contributions from public scrutiny by voters in his current election.

Knowing that Palo Alto voters often object to large campaign contributions in city council races, especially from developers, Mr. Tanaka and his campaign committee have consistently sought to sneak them in under the radar. In the 2016 election he did so by failing to timely report large contributions, collecting such contributions after the last pre-election filing deadline and misrepresenting the source identities. In this 2020 election he is doing so again by collecting contributions early under the guise of his 2016 committee, then failing to file his Statement of Intention to be a Candidate or to amend his Statement of Organization Form 410 in a timely manner.

Statement of Organization; Filing or Content (84101)

Statement of Organization; Amendment (84103)

Failure to file Form 410 amending the Statement of Organization for recipient committee within ten days of change.

Greg Lin Tanaka was elected to the Palo Alto City Council in 2016 and now is a candidate for a second term in this November's election. Government Code Sec. 84103 requires candidates/committees to file an amendment to the Statement of Organization within ten days of a change in information about the recipient committee (see also Instructions to FPPC Form 410). Furthermore, the name of a candidate's campaign committee must include the candidate's last name, office sought, and year of the election. (Government Code Secs. 84102 and 85201)

On July 15, 2020, Mr. Tanaka filed a Form 410 to amend his Statement of Organization, changing the name of his recipient committee to reflect the 2020 election year – from Greg Tanaka for Palo Alto City Council 2016 to Greg Tanaka for Palo Alto City Council 2020.

However, financial disclosures filed on behalf of his 2016 recipient committee, Greg Tanaka for Palo Alto City Council 2016, indicate that the purpose of that recipient committee changed as early as December 2019: from funding ongoing expenses and debt servicing while holding office to active fundraising and expenditures on behalf of his 2020 candidacy. Mr. Tanaka's July 15, 2020 Statement of Organization amendment was filed approximately seven months after activities of the recipient committee changed to active campaign support for the 2020 election year – well in excess of the ten-day filing requirement. Meanwhile, the 2016 recipient committee engaged in campaign fundraising and expenditures associated with Mr. Tanaka's 2020 candidacy throughout that period.

Contributions and Expenditures dating back to December 31, 2019 suggest change in recipient committee information.

On New Years Eve 2019, there was a sudden influx of $13,000 from five campaign contributions to Mr. Tanaka's 2016 Campaign Committee (Greg Tanaka for Palo Alto City Council 2016). Mr. Tanaka reported this infusion on his January 23, 2019 Form 460 as required, but also with the consequence that the public likely would not take notice – it was a non-election year, the funds were reported by his 2016 campaign committee, and he had not yet indicated publicly or through Form 410 or Form 501 filings that he intended to run for re-election. From a 2020 voter's perspective the cash influx arrived sight unseen.

Additionally, as seen in the Greg Tanaka for Palo Alto City Council 2016 Form 460 filed on July 23, 2020, Tanaka's expenses suddenly shot up from approximately $50 a month in 2019, to $2,277 in the first half of 2020 with items such as voter data fee and canvassing costs listed.

Greg Tanaka for Palo Alto City Council 2016 reported a $1,259.80 balance as of December 31, 2019 (Form 460, filed January 23, 2020) and only $301 in expenses for the six-month term of the Report. There were $322 in expenses in the six months prior to that (Form 460 filed July 30, 2019). Given such low expenses and a sufficient balance to cover them, the whopping News Year's Eve contributions certainly were not needed for regular, office-holder expenses or to pay off outstanding 2016 campaign debts.

The subsequent Form 460, filed on July 23, 2020, for Greg Tanaka for Palo Alto City Council 2016 again reported substantial new contributions far exceeding the previously demonstrated need to cover routine office holding and debt servicing expenses. Yet no Form 410 amending the Statement of Organization was filed until July 15, 2020.

In January 2020 alone, $12,550 was raised as the donation pace accelerated during the year with more contributions to Tanaka's 2016 campaign committee. By June 30, 2020, Tanaka's 2016 Committee coffers brimmed with $14,669 in new donations for the reporting period, as shown in the Form 460 filed on July 23, 2020. Combined with the prior New Year's Eve contributions, as of July 23, 2020 Mr. Tanaka could now boast of a $26,350 war chest – all of which was collected (and accompanied new, 2020 campaign related expenses) in the approximately seven months prior to filing an amended Statement of Organization.

The one-month accumulation of over $25,000, between December 31, 2019 and January 31, 2020, by Mr. Tanaka's 2016 campaign committee with no nexus to ongoing office-holding expenses, and including expenses such as the voter database that directly correlate to campaign activities clearly implies changes in recipient committee information. Pursuant to Government Code Section 84103, an amendment to the Statement of Organization should have been filed via Form 410 in January 2020 - well before the committee's July 15, 2020 Form 410 filing.

All local candidates, even if running for the same office, are required to file a new Form 410. Any solicitation, receiving or expending funds by Greg Tanaka for Palo Alto City Council 2016 associated with his 2020 candidacy are inappropriate until he files this form. Yet Councilman Tanaka and his 2016 recipient committee did not file a new Form 410 amending the Statement of Organization until July 15, 2020. He has violated the law.

Statement of Organization; Filing or Content (84101)

Statement of Organization; Contents (84102)

Name of recipient committee fails to reflect year of the election.

The name of a candidate's campaign committee must include the candidate's last name, office sought, and year of the election. (Government Code Sections 85201 and 84102). For approximately seven months, Mr. Tanaka solicited funds and made expenditures to support his 2020 candidacy without a valid Statement of Organization indicating the 2020 election year.
